

MEET THE INSTRUCTOR

Luis Alberto Zuleta

Director of Tennis, Hammock Bay

Luis Zuleta brings a lifelong passion for tennis, player development, and strategic coaching to every lesson. As Director of Tennis, Luis helps players of all ages and skill levels improve their game while fostering a positive and engaging environment on the court.

Known for his energetic coaching style and attention to detail, Luis works closely with players to strengthen fundamentals, refine stroke production, and develop tactical skills. Whether working with beginners or experienced players, he creates customized instruction tailored to individual goals.

Luis believes tennis builds discipline, resilience, sportsmanship, and lifelong friendships. His clinics emphasize movement, consistency, point construction, and smart decision-making, helping players become more effective competitors while enjoying the process of improvement.

Throughout his career, Luis has earned a reputation for creating welcoming programs that encourage growth, camaraderie, and a love for the game. His enthusiasm for teaching and commitment to player success make him a trusted instructor and mentor. Participants can expect professional instruction, encouragement, and an enjoyable learning experience every time they step onto the court.
